The image displays three different styles of brass curtain rods against a dark, vertically-grained wood-textured background. The top rod, labeled 'JUVENTUS', has a smooth finish and a large, rounded, ribbed end cap. The middle rod, labeled 'JUWEL', has a brushed or 'bronzed' finish and a more complex, multi-tiered end cap. The bottom rod, labeled 'JAMAICA', has a polished finish and a large, rounded, ribbed end cap similar to the first one. Each rod is shown with its mounting bracket and a portion of a light-colored, patterned curtain. In the background, a doorway is visible, showing a dark side table with two wooden pepper mills and a light switch on a patterned wall.
